

Risk Assessment Pathway to identify Domestic Abuse

Domestic Abuse is a major safeguarding issue and all health care professionals have a role in increasing awareness, and being inquiring when confronted with behaviours that raise concerns and alarm.

If you are concerned, consider that this person may be suffering from a Domestic Abuse situation, even if there is no evidence of injury.

